IN THE FURSUIT OF HAPPINESS

WHERE: National Art Gallery, Ottawa

WHO: Mrs Laureen Harper

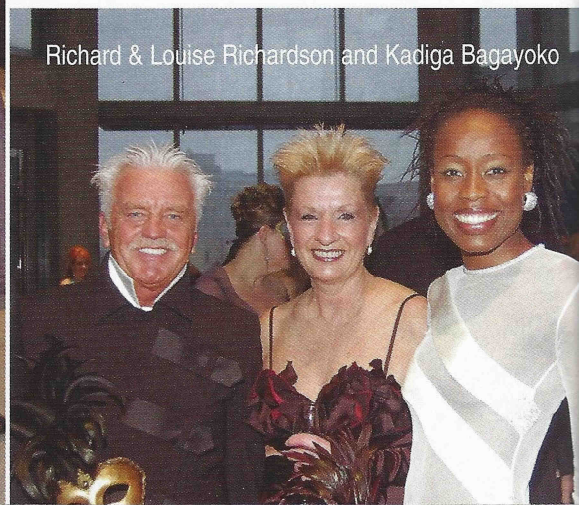

WHAT: Every year around springtime Ottawa's Humane Society throws a nice fiesta for the city's orphaned kitties and woofers. Fun dress-up themes have every guest playing along willingly, like the 'Mardi Gras North' seen here. With a cheeky name like Fur Ball one almost expects Josie and Pussycats playing in the hall. Alas no. Too much sexyness can only be possible in late pm time. So then, formality remains the norm as Mrs Harper chairs the Ball. You bet she wasn't wearing a mask or a catwoman suit but she looked so beautiful that one can't help but wonder if Tony the Tiger showed up at 24 Sussex that same pm. Grrrrreat ball of fire that Furry event!
